●A modest target of 95 by Rickmansworth British Legion proved no problem for Chesham Bois on Sunday.

Batting first, the Legion soon ran into difficulties with Keith Strickland (24) and Glyn Thomas (34) the only batsmen not to fall cheaply. Unfortunately for the Legion, Chesham did not experience the same batting problems and reached the target with the loss of only one wicket.

8 August

Chesham Bois came within an ace of defeating Old Challoners on Saturday at Barn Meadow. Only stubborn resistance by Challoners' last pair at the wicket saved the home team and the game ended in a draw. Put into bat, Chesham Bois lost their first three wickets cheaply to some fine pace bowling, notably from Richardson (2-22). But a brilliant fourth wicket partnership by Lathwell (76 not out) and Clifford (68 not out) steered the visitors to respectability and by tea they had declared at 172-3. Challoners lost their first wicket to the third ball of the innings. They never recovered. Only Matters (27) presented any kind of resistance. However, the Bois bowlers were unable to make the final breakthrough and Challoners crept to safety at 105-9. Chesham Bois 172-3, Lathwell 76 n.o., Clifford 68 n.o. (Richardson 2-22). Old Challoners 105-9 (Wright 3-20).

SPECIAL CLUB PRESENTATION TO MR. SYDNEY ROLPH

At the 1992 dinner dance a special presentation was made to Sydney Rolph, who is moving to Rugby. It was a painting of a cricket scene, on the Chesham Bois Common, specially painted by a local artist.

Over many years Syd has worked tirelessly for the club, as both player and official, and will be much missed by all members, both past and present.

His like do not come along often, but hopefully we shall see him on occasion, as his son Andy will still be playing for the club.

Profile: Syd Rolph (Player 1972-1992)

During the 1970's, 80's and 90's until his retirement from playing in 1992 Syd was the "Mr. Motivator" in the club. It was Syd who took over the leadership of the club when Ian Gomm's council activities took priority.

A tireless worker and a very useful bowler in his playing days (see career figures), he could talk any member into helping in whatever cause was in progress at the time. It was his continual endeavours, despite setbacks through lack of support which was promised by the Sports Council, that finally got the extension to the pavilion completed, meaning the players can now enjoy a hot shower after matches.

His playing career at Chesham Bois was mainly concerned with the bowling of right arm accurate medium pace seamers. Batting was mainly in the late order but on one memorable occasion, as history relates, he opened the innings. Result, Out First Ball!! He did on occasions though score many useful late runs with a top score of 41 not out. A career total of 362 wickets relate to the accuracy of his bowling.

Syd was a man with a very cheerful personality and outlook on life. He has been very much missed since he moved to Rugby in 1993, but still keeps in touch with club members. Like Ian, Syd's like and their commitment to clubs are very rarely seen nowadays, his friendship was appreciated by everyone he came into contact with.

The Rolph Connection

When Syd joined the club in 1972 he introduced his wife Janet who became involved in the club catering throughout Syd's career, assisted by her two daughters Alison and Sandra.

Also joining as a teenager was Syd's son Andrew, who was to become a leading all-round cricketer for the club, being a capable batsman, bowler, fielder and occasional wicket keeper. He played for the club for a number of seasons, (1980-1998), before moving from the area to Devon.

Match Drawn.

CHESHAM Bois notched a good draw against Gt Kingshill in a Friendly on Sunday.

Kingshill, batting first, lost their first five wickets for 39 runs but then a stand of 43 between W Humphrey and R Wyatt, stiffened the batting but then lost three quick wickets.

However a last-wicket stand of 41 saw Stylian make 30 n. o. and Jackson's 15 took the score along to 138.

Besham Bois bowled well with R Brewer 3-23 from seven overs, D Collwell, 4-40 from 7.4 overs.

Their batsmen made a slow start against some good bowling, losing three wickets for four but a stand between Knapp and Greenham put Bois in with a chance. They then lost three wickets for one run and it was left to Greenham not out and R Hean 0 not out to steer Bois to a draw.

CHESHAM Bois hung on a for an exciting draw against Gt Kingshill on Sunday.

Gt Kingshill batted first and after a slow start against good bowling then scored 168-6 at tea with Swain 39 and Wilkes 26.

Bois made a disastrous start losing six wickets for 33 runs against the left arm spin of Wyatt who at that point had bowled 13 overs for 5-9.

Then a stand of 90 between Thomas (43) and Withams (43) rescued Bois to take the score to 123 but then Wyatt took two quick wickets and Bois had to face the last few overs to force a draw. Wyatt ended with 7-10 off 10 overs.

or Ley Hill in the semi-finals at Winchmore Hill.

Bois gave their all but were given short shrift by Hill, who are particularly adept at this competition, which comprises 15 eight-ball overs per innings.

Chesham Bois got off to a good start with Lloyd looking dangerous, but Hill's tight bowling restricted them to 116-7.

In reply, Amersham raced to 117-2. David Lloyd hit 44 not out and Simon Borns made an unbeaten 43.

Chesham Bois 116-7, Clifford 31 no (Thompson 2-22). Amersham Hill 117-2, Lloyd 44 no. Amersham Hill won by eight wickets.

However they both fell soon after each other and Ballinger lost their last six wickets for 48 runs and were all-out for 158 at tea. P Clayton took 4-27 and T Lee 3-25.

Chesham Bois moved into top gear when Ralli accelerated but once he was out for 42 it was left to Southwell to take up the challenge. However he was caught on the boundary for 28 and Bois ran out of overs to get the last ten runs with two wickets in hand and had to settle for a draw.

MIXED fortunes for Chesham Bois CC at the weekend. On Saturday, Bois lost to Widmer End by 33 runs, but next day the Sunday side scored their first victory of the season — at Penn & Tylers Green.

On Saturday, Widmer End batted first and made 150-7. Halls was top man with 41. Lathwell took 4-23 off 12 overs. Bois could only manage 117 with Clifford undefeated on 28 and Dawes taking 4-49.

Match scoreline: Widmer End 150-7, Halls 41 (Lathwell 4-23). Chesham Bois 117, Clifford 28 no (Dawes 3-27, Dawes 4-49) Widmer End won by 33 runs.

In a thriller at Penn & Tylers, Bois took strike first. They struggled to 137-6 due to some generous bowling changes towards the end.

Mark Duyvenbode scored 41, an innings which included nine fours. Bob Beeson gave the innings stability with a solid 25 not out.

When Penn batted they could not keep out Paul Clifford, who produced a hostile and accurate spell, removing two batsmen in his first two overs. Clifford was ably supported by Alan Lathwell (4-28 in 15 overs).

Penn were reduced to 79-9. Then a last ditch stand developed which seemed sure to win the game. A mere two runs were required from six overs. But the last wicket fell dramatically — stumped by Rolph — and Bois were home by the smallest of margins.

Match scoreline: Chesham Bois 137-6 (Duyvenbode 41). Penn & Tylers Green 135 (Lathwell 4-28). Bois won by two runs.

Captain Clifford saves the day

GREAT rearguard action, particularly by captain Paul Clifford, saved Chesham Bois from defeat by Old Challoners on Saturday at Barn Meadow, Challoners were in fine form after their annual tour of the Cotswolds. They elected to bat first and rattled up 164-9 on a drying wicket.

Clive Parrish top-scored with 37 not out. Harris (3-31) proved the visitors' best bowler.

In reply, Bois lost wickets from the start of their innings and at one stage were staring defeat in the face at 38-6.

Then a stand of 48 between Beeson (15 not out) and Clifford (29) steered them to safety. By the close they had grafted hard to reach 86-7.

For Challoners, bowlers Watkins (2-18) and Ormiston (2-16) did most of the damage.

Match scoreline: Old Challoners 164-9, Parrish 37 no. Chesham Bois 86-7, Clifford 29. Match drawn.

PAUL CLIFFORD . . . seen here bowling on Saturday, but it was his batting performance which saved the day for Chesham Bois.

A MAGNIFICENT knock of 103 not out by John Richardson helped Old Challoners to a superb victory over Chesham Bois on Saturday after the Amersham side looked dead and buried at 51-5.

Put into bat, Challoners struggled early on, finding runs hard to come by. They lost their first wicket without scoring and, with half the side gone, found themselves staring defeat in the face.

Then a superb stand of 134 for the sixth wicket by Richardson and Kevin Wilson (25 not out) saved the day and steered Challoners to a respectable 187-5 declared.

Paul Clifford was Chesham Bois' best bowler, returning figures of 3-44.

The home side never quite got to grips with the run rate. Like their opponents they lost early wickets, yet they always looked capable of saving the game.

However, it was the introduction of Fred Lappin that changed the course of the match for the Old Boys. In a spell of deceptive bowling, Lappin took 6-46 and nudged the visitors towards a famous victory.

Match scoreline: Old Challoners 187-5 declared, J. Richardson 103 no (clifford 3-44). Chesham Bois 130 (Lappin 6-46). Old Challoners won by 57 runs.

Ley Hill triumphed against Chesham Bois on Sunday by 87 runs. Keith Brewer (51), and Richard Lewis (42 runs and 5-34 off eight overs) were the match stars for the victors.

Hill batted first and lost their first wicket with only seven on the board. But they recovered from this setback to finish on 220-5.

Brewer and Lewis were supported by Mellor and Sussum with 33 and 37 respectively. The pick of Bois' bowlers were Colwell (2-34 off 11 overs) and Clifford (2-42 off 12).

In reply Bois amassed a paltry 133 all out with Kemp their best player on 33.

Match scoreline: Ley Hill 220-5, Brewer 51, Chesham Bois 133, Kemp 33 (Lewis 5-34). Ley Hill won by 87 runs.

Clifford destroys The Lee with 7-15

IT was a successful weekend for Chesham Bois Cricket Club who eclipsed The Lee by eight wickets on Saturday.

The next day Bois were again on song, gaining a six-wicket advantage over Farnham Common.

Captain Paul Clifford was the match-star against The Lee. His inspired 7-15 off 11 overs spelt crisis personified for the home side, who were all out for a mere 47.

Clifford was well supported by Harris who chipped in with a hat-trick off 10 overs for 23.

Bois knocked off the required runs in double-quick time, scoring 48-2 with Beeson not out 12 and Garner undefeated on 9. For The Lee, Dixon took 2-9 off six overs.

The Lee 47 (Clifford 7-15, Harris 3-23). Chesham Bois 48-2, Rolph 21 (Dixon 2-9). Chesham Bois won by eight wickets.

On Sunday, Farnham Common batted first and reached 210 off 40 overs after an early scare.

Bois started fairly well, putting on 24 off six overs before they lost Beeson.

Greenham and Withams put on another 24 in seven overs. That set the scene for a match-winning stand of 130 for the third wicket between Withams (85) and Giles (80).

22 August

But Bois still needed 33 off the last four overs. Giles hit 19 off the 37th and six off the 39th over, and the winning run was scored with one ball to spare.

Johnny Giles batted really well for an undefeated 80.

Farnham Common 210, Chapman 82, Goodwin 46. Chesham Bois 211-4, Withams 85, Giles 80 no. Chesham Bois won by six wickets.

CHESHAM Bois 2nds

took on Haydon Hall but the match ended in another draw. Haydon Hall batted first and put on 51 for the first wicket in only ten overs. Telfer was caught for 21, then four wickets fell for 16 runs and at 61-4 Haydon Hall looked in trouble but a stand of 108 between O Bidder (103 n. o.) and M Harrop (51) took them to safety.

Hinks bowled well without luck taking 2-52 off 14 overs.

Bois never really had much chance of reaching the total but an opening stand of 120 by Greenham (58) and Beeson (57) put them in with a chance but once these two went only Richardson reached double figures and Bois had to settle for a draw.
