BATTING COLLAPSE BY BOIS

CHESHAM BOIS started off their home match in fine style on Saturday but a sudden collapse by the high-order batsmen proved too much of a handicap and Great Missenden won by four wickets.

The first ball of the afternoon beat batsman Hearn and wicket-keeper Haynes to go for four byes. Nigel Bunce added seven runs to these before being dismissed by a good ball from Robert Sendall.

The rot set in and three more wickets, those of Knowles, Hearn and Weedon, fell with the score still at 11.

Evans and Ian Gomm tried to make a stand and they looked well set but Les Eke dismissed the former and Gomm was out a few minutes later.

The Chesham Bois tail-enders failed miserably and, although skipper Peter East produced some fine strokes, the side was dismissed for a mere 46.

Both Robert Sendall and Les Eke bowled brilliantly for Great Missenden.

The visitors got off to a bad start losing opener Jim Butterfield with no score on the board. But a stylish innings by skipper Jim Catto and a hard-hit one by Robert Sendall saw Missenden through comfortably.

Sendall's scoring strokes were a four and two sixes, the second six winning the match.

ALL OUT FOR 9 !

One fantastic over by Chesham Bois pace bowler David Smith completely wrecked Brazils' innings and they were all out for nine in Sunday's match at Chesham Bois.

In this over Smith took five wickets including a hat-trick as Brazils' score tumbled from 9 for 4 to 9 all out.

Smith finished with 7 for 6 and N. Bunce captured the remaining three for 3 runs. This was Smith's debut for the club.

After suffering early shocks, Bois won with seven wickets in hand.

The match was over so quickly that another was arranged on the spot. This time Brazils made 57 with Bunce taking 5 for 26. Chesham Bois knocked off the runs for the loss of four wickets.

SEAMER GULSON WHIPS BOIS

AMERSHAM HILL beat Chesham Bois by 9 runs in a low-scoring match at Woodside-road on Sunday. The result was always in the balance until the last Chesham Bois wicket fell.

Batting first, Amersham Hill found a slow and unpredictable wicket hard to score upon and although 25 was reached for 2 wickets, 3 more fell at this score, including that of Stewart for 19.

Thereafter, Bunce (6 for 19) made the Hill struggle for every run and it was mainly due to Heslop (11) that a score of 52 was recorded.

Intelligent

When Chesham Bois batted, the ball was still coming through at uneven heights and in the face of an intelligent and accurate piece of seam bowling by John Gulson, who used a strong cross-wind profitably, the Bois capitulated for a score of 43, resistance coming from Bunce (13).

The Bois started their innings badly losing three wickets for 28. Then a stand of 70 between Peter East (42) and David Hearn (44 n.o.) improved matters and with support from Parsons (14) and Ward (13 n.o.) the match was won with two minutes to spare.

Bois try six bowlers but lose to White Lion

ELECTING TO BAT first, the White Lion C.C. scored 139 for eight declared against Chesham Bois on Sunday, having faced six of the Bois bowlers.

Against Joiner and Groves the openers could make little progress, and Joiner in particular was unlucky to fail to get a wicket, beating both the batsman and the wicket keeper on various occasions.

Gomm and Hammond continued the attack, with the former getting two wickets whilst the latter in one over appealed for two catches, both of which to his obvious chagrin were denied.

Bunce and Hearn took over with Bunce claiming three wickets to Hearn's two.

The White Lions were apparently impressed by their hosts' two recent scores of 190, and chose to bat on after tea, and with Brown still enjoying some short of a length leg spin the innings finally closed when he had reached 33.

Chesham Bois, hard-pressed for batsmen at any time, were unable to select more than two recognised run getters—Bunce and Hearn—for this match, and the bowling of Mosesson proved too much for them. Only Hammond, with his own particular brand of batting, prodded, deflected and coaxed the ball in varying directions for 18 valuable runs, putting on 22 with a less active but solid partner in Nash.

All out for 56, Chesham Bois lost the match, but had gained itself a fixture with a very sociable side as it later proved to be.

Chesham Bois help The Lee to win

VISITING The Lee last Sunday, Chesham Bois sowed the seeds of their own defeat early in the day with an abysmal fielding display.

Winning the toss, the home side batted first and, helped by a glut of missed catches by the Bois fielders, they scored 105 runs.

Two early wickets fell but then through an amazing display of ineptness in the field, the following batsmen were let off the hook.

The home side, which might have been dismissed for 60, left Chesham Bois 106 to get after tea.

As it happened, 60 would have been nearer the visitors' capacity, for they could only muster 54 in reply.

Poor fielding was followed by unenterprising batting and apart from Chasmore, who stayed doggedly at one end, the middle batting failed completely.

It was again left to Hammond, to score 14 and to Longhurst, with 18 entertaining runs, to take the Bois score to an uncertain 54.

All credit to The Lee—and in particular to Thompson with 8 for 25—for having taken the chances so freely offered them.

Ian Took 99 Wickets

THE summer of 1962 was not one of the best for Chesham Bois, the club winning only 13 matches, drawing 5 and losing 25. However, during the season, Chesham Bois entertained some new strong sides and renewed friendships with most of their old friends and enjoyed their cricket which is the most important factor. Skipper East headed the batting averages with 15.59 and missed scoring 500 runs by one run.

Vice-captain Gomm failed by one wicket to make a round total of 100 wickets, and his fellow vice-captain, Bunce, headed the bowling averages with 47 wickets for 8.02.

THE GREENHAM INFLUENCE

In 1963 Eddie Greenham, a renowned local builder and respected figure, joined the club and played a few games before offering his services with the building of the permanent new pavilion. He became the driving force behind the project and after the club raised the necessary funds and backing proceeded to build the pavilion for £1300. A large amount in those days.

Eddie brought along with him members of his extended family, son Tony, Tony's later wife Sue and her mother Mrs. Chris King.

Also joining were son-in-law Ian Frankham and, in later years, his son Mark. All, in their own way, greatly contributed to the success of the club.

Tony Greenham played for a few seasons (1963-1967) before joining Chalfont Saints C.C. but later (1983) rejoined the club as a player and later served the club in various roles including Secretary, Fixture Secretary and finally as Club Umpire. He left the club to further his umpiring career.
